Faculty Development Programmes

6-Days NCTE – Intel – GNDU Workshop for integrating ICT in Teacher Education

6 days NCTE-INTEL Teach Workshop for integrating ICT in Teacher Education in collaboration with GNDU Amritsar was organized for colleges of Education affiliated to GNDU. The detail report as published in University News, an AIU publication is as following

Intel ® Teach program is world wide initiative to help both in-service and pre-service teachers integrate technology into the classroom to enhance student learning. The pre-service programme is an important segment of the Intel Teach program. It enables Teacher Educators to discover how to use technology to promote enquiry based learning to research, communication and productive tools. Intel Teach Program is currently associated with 60 Universities across the country.

Guru Nanak Dev University is the first University of Punjab to collaborate with Intel ® Teach and NCTE to provide sustained professional growth of teacher educators working in colleges of education affiliated to G.N.D. University striving to become a leading centre of academic excellence by expanding the frontiers.

Dr Amit Kauts Principal, MGN College of Education, Jalandhar and Dean, Faculty of Education, G.N.D. University told that to provide this training all the teacher educators will be provided 50 hours professional training for ICT integration in teacher education. For achieving this objective, two teacher educators from each College of Education were provided training for becoming master trainers and rest of the teacher educators got training by these master trainers. For training master trainers, teacher educators were categorized into four groups each consisting of 25 teacher educators. Two groups were trained in M.G.N. College of Education from 6th – 11th January 2009 and 4th – 9th February 2009. Other two groups were trained at D.A.V. College of Education, Amritsar and Khalsa College of Education, Amritsar from 7th January – 12 January 2009.

This programme was inaugurated by Prof (Dr) Jai Rup Singh, Vice Chancellor, G.N.D. University, Amritsar at M.G.N. College of Education, Jalandhar on 6th January, 2009. In his presidential remarks Prof (Dr) Jai Rup Singh stressed that quality education in B.Ed. colleges is much more required because these institutions have to prepare the teachers who have to teach the future generation in our schools. If the child has repulsion of going before teacher then society will be in the hands of war. So we must have good, dedicated and sincere teachers even equipped with information, communication and technology. He congratulated the Management, Principal and staff to organize such a workshop. S. Jarnail Singh Pasricha, Hony. Secretary, MGN Educational Trust, former Deans of Faculty of Education and approximately 40 Principals of different colleges of education along with team of Intel Teach Programme. Mr. Vinay Mehra, pre service programme manager INTEL Teach Programme and Mrs. Pragya Sinha, Programme Manager for NCTE Programme and the trainers were present among other dignitaries.

After the inaugural session, there was 3 hours Principal Leadership Programme and all the 40 Principals attended this programme. Among the Principals who attended this workshop were

Mrs. Praghya Sinha Assistant Manager, Project NCTE conducted the Principal Leadership Forum Programme. She provided group activities and interactive sessions for realizing out such skills which Principals must possess to handle various kinds of situations in the College. This was followed by training of teacher educators as master trainers, conducted by Mr. Dharmesh Acharya.

In continuation with this NCTE-INTEL ® Teach Programme, the other workshops for training teacher Educators were inaugurated on January 7, 2009 at Khalsa College of Education, Amritsar under the supervision of Principal Dr J.S. Dhillon and D.A.V. College of Education, Amritsar under the supervision of Principal Dr Aruna Anand which were inaugurated by Dr S.S. Chahal, Director, Research, G.N.D. University, Amritsar and attended by Dr Amit Kauts (Dean, Faculty of Education). The training programme was conducted by Mr. Samar Rathor at Khalsa College of Education, Amritsar and Ms. Sapna Bisht at D.A.V. College of Education, Amritsar.

In the series of workshops for integration of ICT in Teacher Education, the First Workshop was inaugurated at M.G.N. College of Education, Jalandhar on 6th January, 2009 in which Teacher Educators of 12 Colleges participated. This workshop concluded on 11th January 2009. In this training workshop, the teacher educators were given training regarding Project Based Teaching Methodology which included unit plans, Evaluation Rubric (tools), Development of publications, Preparation of Power Point along with animations, Preparation of Education Blogs, making of emails, web pages, web blogs, teacher support document, student support documents and implementation plans.

The valedictory programme was presided over by Dr Amit Kauts, Dean, Faculty of Education, GNDU, Amritsar who congratulated the teacher educators for the successful completion of the course and motivated the teacher educators to train remaining teacher educators of their colleges in the most effective manner so that teacher educator institutions of G.N.D. University could integrate ICT in the programme of teacher education and could produce teachers with a difference. In the valedictory programme the participants gave their reflections about the effectiveness of this programme. Arjinder Singh Lecturer from Innocent Heart College of Education was apprehensive to attend this workshop because he was already Computer Expert but after the workshop he felt he had gained with respect to his classroom teaching and student learning. Another participant Mrs. Manjit Kaur Lecturer G.N. College of Education, Kapurthala said she is feeling proud to become Computer Savvy. The workshop made her effective in her classroom presentations. She was confident to use Computer based learning Packages for her classroom teaching and learning. She stressed this type of workshops to be organized frequently to produce effective teachers. Another Participant Mrs. Karuna, Lecturer D.A.N. College of Education, Nawan Shahar was confident to talk about computer. Earlier she was afraid of this machine and now she wanted to be in computers field. She prepared presentations for classroom teaching and student learning. Course Coordinator Dr Deepa Sikand Kauts said that entire portfolio enabled the teachers and students to work effectively in 21st century workforce. This would take students to the higher level of teaching where in technology is used as a tool in teaching learning process.

The second workshop which was held from 4th -9th Feb. 2009 in the college Principal campus was inaugurated by the college Principal and the valedictory programme was presided by Dr S.S. Chahal, director research GNDU who apprehended the works of Teacher Educators.

In the series of this programme, a workshop was organized for all the teachers of the college from 26th March to 31st March, 2009. All the teachers of the college completed 50 HRS professional training under the supervision of Dr Deepa Sikand Kauts, Mrs. Nellu Jhanji and Mrs. Shivani Gulati
