Report on Live Telecast of Hon'ble Prime Minister Interaction on 16.02.2018

Students of B.Ed. and M.Ed. alongwith faculty members of M.G.N College of Education, Jalandhar viewed the live telecast of Hon'ble Prime Minister interaction on matters concerning 'how to reduce exam stress' on 16.02.2018 aired live on DD National in the college campus. Prime Minister deliberated that self-confidence comes by working hard. He further said that concentration is not something which is to be learnt. During the day every person does concentrate while reading or talking and yoga helps in improving the concentration. PM suggested that the competition should not be with others but with ourselves. Focus should be on how to improve oneself. He also urged that parents should not make the achievements of their child a matter of social prestige as every child is blessed with unique talents. PM also spoke about the importance of a healthy balance between IQ (Intelligence Quotient) and EQ (Emotional Quotient). He also deliberated that emotional bonding is essential for the overall development of the personailty that helps in forming relationships. Intelligence without an emotional connect is worthless. IQ might help us achieve success, but EQ gives us a purpose in life. Learn to defocus, before focussing was another sugesstion by PM. One should manage to go out and play, listen to some music, do some art, to leave the tensions of studies behind for a while. He further added that one must also connect and appreciate nature that works as a great stress-buster. Treat exams like festivals" and " a happy mind is the secret of a good mark sheet" was the crux of the interaction.
