

2020-2021

Institutional Distinctiveness

From more than 67 years, M.G.N College of Education, Jalandhar has excelled and carved a unique niche in the noble field of teaching, guiding and mentoring. The college focuses keenly on holistic development of the students and provides them with every opportunities and resources to facilitate their holistic development. The college endeavours to be distinctive in harmony with its mission, vision and objectives. For this, the college focuses on learner centred learning, mentoring students to prepare them for professional world, involvement of the students in variety of activities for diverse experiences. The college building has well equipped classrooms, laboratories, library, Gym and an auditorium. College ground has indoor and outdoor games facilities. There are 2 lawns in the campus. The area is immensely diverse with a variety of tree species. The college has different Cells and Clubs which offers wide spectrum of environmental and nature activities and platforms to enhance awareness and exhibit the relationship with nature. The college organizes camps and different activities for environment, education awareness, healthcare, etc. Various activities like cleanliness drive, tree-plantation, cycle rally, seminars and workshops are organised by Cells/Clubs/Committees/NSS to increase the awareness and sensitivity among students and faculty. Students also participate in eco-friendly competitions like diya making, best out of waste and campaigns for discouraging the use of polythene, etc. In the pandemic scenario when academic activities are taking place virtually, College arranges webinars, online activities pertaining to environment. NSS Volunteers, under the guidance of Principal and teachers, are actively involved to be engaged in the community. The college has a website with updates, Inlibnet facility in library. There is fully functional ET lab, ICT resource room and GYM to facilitate holistic development of the student and teachers. The college provides financial and emotional support to students. Faculty interacts with parents whenever required. The college provides student aid fund and book bank facility to the needy students. Important days of National importance are celebrated by organising varied activities. Teachers adopts different mode of instruction according to the need of the learners. The faculty implements different pedagogical strategies and techniques with the use of technology for varied classroom instructions, demonstration of composite and micro lessons, discussions, and assignments to provide varied exposure to the students. The college has well knitted and well framed Pre- practice programme in which prospective teachers are given training in the preparation of different lesson plans. For qualitative references, well delivered lessons by the teacher educators are video recorded to facilitate students. The students learn different models of lesson planning and its execution with optimum utilization of technology. The students are encouraged to adopt these technologies in their practice teaching sessions, student seminars and presentations. The college conducts outreach and extension programmes in which faculty and students participate. The College considers put sincere efforts to form socially responsible teachers.