Further, she said that every child is different and his/her pattern of growth especially the conative aspect of his/her personality is different. At initial stage of education the story telling method is proved to be the most effective way to develop the imaginative aspect of the child's personality.

Further, she also stressed that carefully printed text books, lecture method along with demonstrations, Montessori teaching, play way teaching, role playing, dramatization, brainstorming tutorials, project methods and discovery methods along with the use of technology are really helpful methods which are used according to the diverse needs of the child. During the lecture, she also reflected on the importance of role of parenting in the personality development of the child as it is the most important way to rear the child in a health way. Typical parents want to see their ward to be winner and in front row, but she said that everything in life is horizontal. So, she further suggested that parents need to have understanding about the interest of the students to guide them for giving their best in life.
